“ Terry when first meeting him I was Intimidated. He was Bigger than Me, didn't smile much and Was quiet. After getting to know him and spend time together, He was One of the Nicest People you could meet. No Longer quiet we had some Good Times with a Large Click of Friends. In that Click were even smaller different sets of Friends that we all switch up and hang with for awhile and Rotate and eventually see and get back together. Terry always treated me with Respect, was Cool to Hang around, and was Real. We went to Chicago once. Me my sister Jessica, Jon, Jamie, Terry, and at least 3 others I can't Remember. We had a Good Trip, made a memory to Last and was Fun & Scary at the Same Time. Life was without Responsibility, we were young. We were all Happy and didn't know what Life had in store. Later we grew apart and never got the chance to meet up again. I Relish the Time we did Have and Enjoyed. You will be missed Terry and it was an Honor knowing you. Your Friend, Steve Percifield.
