“ When I think of Terry, it takes me back to Harrodsburg Elementary School and the Harrodsburg Methodist Church (where my father was the minister) because that is where I saw him most frequently. I recall him smiling and laughing a lot. He had a zest for life and his twinkling eyes usually had some kind of good-natured mischief or a joke brewing. He was fun to be around, very witty and energetic. I got such a kick out of him when he was around. He had a kind heart which made him stand out and I'm glad I got to know him and call him my friend.

“ Chris and Terry's family,

I did not know Terry but I lived in the neighborhood across from Chris and Terry's house. Over the years we have walked by and shared hellos and short conversations. When we would cross paths at a neighborhood store we would do the same. I can tell by those interactions that he was a kind, good man and I am certain your hearts are aching. May peace surround you and know he was admired by strangers because of his kind and friendly greetings to those around him. Peace, Christine Taylor

“ Chris,

Becky and I are so saddened with the passing of Terry. He was a wonderful man. His pain is now over for him, so as we all mourn his passing, keep hold of that knowledge.

Take Care, Ron & Becky

Chris

Sorry to hear about Terry. Even though we didn't know him, I knew and worked for his brother, dad, uncles, and his grandpa Sherman. They are all wonderful men! As I am sure Terry was a wonderful man as well. Connie and I pray for you to find peace and calm during these tough days. We think the world of you and if we can do anything for you please don't hesitate to reach out.

*Sincerely,
Rick and Connie Trinkle*

“ I'm so very sorry to hear of Terry's passing. Terry was my neighbor when I was young and one of my dearest friends from childhood through my late teenage years. Even though we didn't see each other much after our early thirties I've always thought of him often and have great memories of all the fun and happy times we shared. I'll never forget how much we laughed together. My thoughts go out to all who loved him. Rest easy my dear old friend.

“ It's been a long time, but I believe Terry and I knew each other when he was a high school student and I was a bus driver for MCCSC. Then over the years we occasionally ran into each other. Terry was one of those friends that you never forget. A truly nice guy.

I was so saddened to hear of Terry's passing. I knew him through the bank where he would come to make daily deposits and we grew a great friendship. He would tease me and make me laugh daily. He will be truly missed. Continued prayers to you all.
