

Terry L. Pirtle

June 7, 1947 - July 15, 2016

Terry L. Pirtle passed away peacefully, Friday, July 15, 2016, at home, with family, in eastern Greene county. Born June 7, 1947, in Sullivan, Indiana, he was the son of Ralph E. and Betty J. Pirtle. He graduated from Sullivan High School in 1965. Terry was preceded in death by his parents and by his oldest son BJ Pirtle. He is survived by his wife of 48 years, Susan, daughter Sarah (Ryan) Fipps, son Jacob Pirtle, sister Debbie (Jim) Smitley, brother Richard Alumbaugh, grandsons Adam Pirtle and Brody Fipps, as well as many beloved nieces and nephews.

Terry worked at NSA Crane for over 35 years until his retirement in 2002.

Terry enjoyed spending time with his family and friends, being outside or in his workshops. Much of his time was spent implementing the many complicated projects of his wife, Susan. He usually finished his day with the daily crosswords and puzzles.

He is remembered for his kindness, thoughtfulness, and sincerity, and will be missed by all who knew him.

Graveside services in Sullivan will be held at future date.

“ Terry was our, Crane Army Ammunition Activity, shift supervisor. He was quick witted and had a dry sense of humor. He was very knowledgeable and treated his crews fairly. We referred to Terry as our hippie supervisor. With his long hair and head bands. He knew his business and was his own person. He commanded respect just by his presence and actions. God bless you Terry and may you rest in peace. My deepest sympathies to his family.
