

Terry Lewis Tate

March 15, 1958 - December 10, 2022

Terry Lewis Tate, was born March 15, 1958, to his parents the late, Lillie B. (Stinson) Tate and EL Thompson, in Newbern, Tennessee.

Terry transitioned Saturday, December 10, 2022, peacefully, at the age of 64, at his residence.

He and his family moved to Indianapolis, Indiana at the age of one year old. He attended Harry E. Wood High School in Indianapolis. Soon after high school, he received a technical trade certificate in HVAC and Maintenance; which he went on to work in these fields for many years.

Terry met the love of his life, Tracy Johnson, and they were happily married September 29, 2015. The two of them eventually made Bloomington, Indiana there home, until his unexpected death.

He is survived by his wife, Tracy Johnson of Bloomington, his son, Anthony Sykes of Bloomington, his sister, Carolyn J. Tate of Mansfield, TX; his sister, Shearon D. Neal of Los Angeles, CA; his brother, Ricky F. Neal of Chandler, AZ; and a host of nieces, nephews and cousins.

Terry is also preceded in death by his brother, Lenois Campbell, his sister, Brenda J. Alsum, and his daughter, Teonha L. Monroe.

“It’s never goodbye, it’s always see you later”

-Terry-

Tribute Wall

TG

“ Uncle Terry, my heart is broken, I miss you so much. Your laugh, smile, voice, the many get togethers we had when I was a little girl, and the time we shared as an adult, is something I will never forget. You will forever be in my heart. I love you to the moon and back, your niece Tuwanna.

Tuwanna Guillory - December 16, 2022 at 04:10 PM