

Dr. Thankam Mathew

April 10, 1934 - March 23, 2024

Dr. Thankam Mathew (90) went to be with her Lord and her husband, parents and brothers.

Dr. Thankam Mathew (nee Bastian) was born on April 11th, 1933 in Pudukad, Trichur district, Kerala, India to devout Christian parents. Dr. Mathew became the oldest Indian woman and American veterinarian of Indian origin, when she turned 90 in 2023.

Throughout her career, Dr. Thankam Mathew was a trailblazer, breaking barriers and making significant contributions to veterinary medicine. She became the first woman veterinary student on campus in Madras Veterinary College, India, graduating with top honors and merit awards in 1958. Dr. Mathew became the first woman veterinarian to receive doctorate. Her Ph.D was characterizing the buffalo pox virus as a new entity within the pox group of viruses. Her other achievements included being the first lady veterinarian to join the faculty of Kerala Veterinary College (KVC), Mannuthy, Kerala, India; being the first woman in India to open and establish a veterinary and medical diagnostic laboratory in New Delhi in 1986; establishing Thajema Publishers, in 1987, the first publishing company in India founded by a woman veterinarian; and being the Founding Secretary of the Indian Association of Lady Veterinarians in 1985.

Her career path led her to advocacy and meetings with the President of India, R Venkataraman, and the Prime Minister of India, Rajiv Gandhi. Her profession also took her to Kaduna, Nigeria, all while raising three young daughters with her veterinary husband Dr. Zachariah Mathew. After migrating to the USA, Dr. Thankam Mathew, in her 60s still passionate about research, worked as a researcher at IGI Vineland Labs, Vineland, NJ. In her retirement years she continued to publish veterinary medical books under Thajema Publishers.

Despite her many accomplishments and traveling to the 6 continents for her professional work, Dr. Thankam Mathew remained humble and dedicated to her work and was known for her strong Christian values, prayerful nature, humility, simplicity, kindness, generosity, and her love for life. In addition to her professional achievements, she pursued her hobbies in embroidery, cross-stitching, sewing, and gardening, showcasing her artistic talents.

Dr. Thankam Mathew was preceded in death by her loving husband, Dr. Zachariah Mathew, parents Mr. P.P. Devassy and Mrs. Mary Kattikaran, brothers Prof. Francis Thekkiniyath and Mr. Priyan Paul. She is survived by her daughters Dr. Trini Mathew, Dr. Tripti Mathew and Dr. Taji Abraham, son-in-law Mr. Bijou Abraham and grandchildren Dr. Tanishq Abraham and Ms. Tiara Abraham.

“ Praise the lord .Greetings to all of you in the precious name of our Lord Jesus Christ. Dear Achens ,grieving family's ,all sisters and brothers in Christ and loving children. My name is grace Alexander from New Jersey marthoma church. I am so privileged ,humbled and honored to say few words about our dear Dr Thankam Mathew auntie . We met this loving family when they moved to new Jersey around 30 yrs ago . . Death is always painful it is a separation from this world to a promotion for a believer to eternity where no more pain , sickness or sorrows . As it says in John 14:1Donot let your heart be troubled ,Trust in the lord ,Trust also in me in my fathers house are many rooms ,I am going there to prepare a place for you . Now Aunty is rejoicing with uncle , her parents and all the saints in heaven . Aunty loved the lord believed in the power of prayer . She had an infectious smile and she loved her family and her friends . We had many opportunities to be with Aunty and family . , we went to sevikasanghom prayer meetings together with a group of friends from our chuch. . Dear Taji , Biju Tripty and Trini I know it is very painful to say goodbye to your parents .As job says Jesus gave and He took them may His name be Glorified. As believers we have a hope that we can see her one day on the other shore . Aunty loved her 2 grand children , they are her pride love of her life and always cherished theirGodgiven Talents in many ways . On the Behalf of my family our heartfelt condolences and prayers for heavenly peace comfort and strength at this difficult time . May the good Lord bless us all . With lots of love and prayers
Grace Alexander .
