“ I first met Tina, at Mamie & Hoover's for a cookout, Tina was making potato salad, I never cared for potato salad until I had hers, delicious, but never got her recipe 😞. My first visit to her house was with Willie, she was a great hostess, the house was in Chicago, screened in front porch, very cozy and pretty. Stayed up late playing cards with big Scotty Tina and brother Danny, little Scotty was maybe 3 yrs old. She made breakfast for us before we headed out the next day, I had a great time!! Over the next couple years Ann and I made a few road trips to see her, she was always fun to be with. Years pass quickly and life changes...I wish I would have kept in touch! Rest in Peace Tina, I'll see you again one day. Rachel, Ann, Pat and Willie our hearts are heavy for your loss. 🙏
