“ Toby, I have to believe that God has something extraordinary that he needed done and he chose you to do it! Why else would he have taken you from us? You always said, "you wouldn't put your name on anything, unless it was done absolutely perfect!" I'm so very proud and thankful to be your Mom. You always took such good care of all of us. You showed your love to us when you were so young and you were not afraid to show it when you became a man. Your loyalty to your family, friends and your business to always do your best was your very best quality. There will never be another who can replace you, You were one of a kind! I will miss our daily phone calls but somehow I believe you will let me know how you're doing and what your next job is. When you see me not doing something just the way you would want it done don't hesitate to let me know, I'll know it is You. In just a very short time you taught Shelby and Tessa how to love, care and be the best that they can be! Their smiles,laughter and a willingness to want to help others shows up every day in their lives. They will grow up to be so wonderful and do so many great things. It is going to be so hard, for everyone,you not being here. Rest now for awhile. I Love you, Mom

“ Our group of friends met Toby in East Bernard Junior High around 1987. Although he was a new kid, he fit right in. Ever since we first met him, he has only grown in character, strength, charisma, compassion, and outlandish story telling capability. We called him a yankee and made fun of him for putting sugar in his chili--because you could get kicked out of Texas for doing that! "Toonces, Dirt, T-Dog, Poonie, and other unmentionable nicknames" became a close friend to us very quickly. He was honest, had firm words, silly dance moves, smart as a whip, but best of all the "brother" I never had. Toby, I know I'll have to stand in line to hug you, but please ask JESUS to set aside some Alpine riding gear for me and you if I get there. You would probably want to punch me in the throat for crying over you, but you left us too soon! I miss and love you Toby! ---you left too soon
