

Tomiko Crum

May 22, 1926 - July 18, 2009

Tomiko Crum, 83, of Harrodsburg died Saturday morning at her residence following a lengthy illness. She was born May 11, 1926 in Maibashi, Japan the daughter of Mori and Tamano Kanbe. Prior to her marriage she worked a laundress for the U.S. Navy and was a longtime homemaker.

Survivors include her husband, Leonard Ray Crum of Harrodsburg, and one sister, Michiko Willette of San Diego, Ca. She was preceded in death by her parents.

There will be no services or visitation. Allen Funeral Home, 4155 S. Old State Rd. 37 in Bloomington is in charge of arrangements. Online condolences may be sent to the family at www.allenfuneralhome.org.

Tribute Wall

AI

“ I am very sorry for your loss.my fiance and I bought a bedroom suite and in the bedside table we found their marriage certificate and photos.I would like to see that a member of the family would want them.Again our condolences. AIMEE CAPPS and BOBBY GRAHAM

---

Aimee Capps - October 26, 2015 at 04:35 PM

CW

“ Uncle Ray..we are so sorry to hear about the loss of Aunt Tomiko. I was saddened by the news, but knew that she is in a better place and there is not more suffering for her. Remember you have family who love you and wish to be there for you. My greatest memory of her was when you guys used to live in Loma Linda and we would come out to visit..she and I would walk out among the roses and flowers and she would always pick a pink one for me..it is the small things we take for granted and we will miss the most. I am glad that I have pictures since there are are so many wonderful memories I can share with my kids. I know they are saddened by the loss as well. Aunt Taco was one of a kind and I loved her dearly. She will be greatly missed. We love you Uncle Ray..

Love John, Charla, Alexandria, Darryl, Stephanie, Keith and JoAnna

---

Charla Wear - October 26, 2015 at 04:35 PM

GA

“ So sorry Uncle Ray. No words can say the right thing for this time. Aunt Tomiko was your world, your greatest love and treasure. You did your best to make her life good. She worshipped you just like you did her. Her last years were hard on both of you. Even though now she is at rest and not sick you still miss her and want her back even as she was. Now you have a void that nothing can fill. Mom is so sad too as well as the rest of us. Mom is very worried about you. We wouldn't call because we were afraid of waking you or Aunt Tomiko or interfere the hospice visits of nurses. Chuck says that he really liked Tomiko, she was good people. He's sad she is gone. He told me he always felt welcome at your home, from Chuck, that says alot. Hope this little letter helps you to feel you are not alone even though we are miles apart. Love Gaby, Chuck & Mom

---

Gabrielle Miller - October 26, 2015 at 04:35 PM