

Tonya Renea Allgood

August 19, 1973 - August 15, 2023

Tonya Renea Allgood, 49, of Bloomington, Indiana, passed away on August 15, 2023. Born on August 19, 1973, in Bloomington, Indiana.

Tonya was a caring and compassionate individual who dedicated many years of her life as a caregiver. Despite facing her own challenges, she always made an effort to support and look after those closest to her.

Tonya leaves behind a loving family, including her mother, Audrey Fultz, and her father, Ricky A Dixon. She is also survived by her daughter, Quincy Hearth, and her children Allie, Lilly, and Maverick. Additionally, she is survived by her son, Jacob Good, and his child Kynsley, her daughter Baylee Crafton and her children Raiden and Sendell, her son Blaise Sylvester, her sister Shannon Wiley, and her sister Denise Jones.

One of Tonya's greatest joys in life was spending time with her grandchildren. She cherished the moments shared with them, particularly the adventures she had with her grandson Raiden. Tonya believed in the importance of making lasting memories and creating special bonds with her loved ones.

A celebration of Tonya's life will be planned at a future date. In the meantime, her family and friends will come together to remember her and honor her memory. Tonya's caring spirit and dedication to those around her will be greatly missed by all who knew her. May her soul rest in peace.
