“ To the family of "Lish" Goeth; May God wrap his arms around you and your family in this time of grievence. Know that weeping may endure for a night but joy cometh in the morning.

To everything there is a season, and time to every pupose under heaven: A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance; A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing; A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away; A time to rend, a time to sew, a time to keep silence, and a time to speak; A time to love, a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.

KJV ECCLESIASTES 3:1-8

“ Words can't express what should be said about Lish. He was an amazing person to be in company with. Now all because of a senseless act he will never get the chance to raise his daughter like she deserves. Justice will be served in one way or another, but for now...my conolences go out to his family and friends. Lord, you know these are hard times, I ask u to walk closely to all of us and help guide us through this tragedy that has so suddenly takin our friend, father, son, and brother from us. Forever in our hearts and eternally R.I.P. We love you Lish!

“ I am very sorry to hear of the loss of Lish. The loss of a loved one is always a time of sorrow. May we look to the Bible's words for encouragement, looking forward to the fulfillment of prophecy when all things like sickness, pain and death are things of the past (Revelation 21:3, 4). My condolences go to the family in this time of need.

“ To the family of "Lish" Goeth; I did not know your loved one personally, but my children knew him and said that he was a good person. I felt compelled to let you know that I have kept your family in prayer since first learning of this senseless act. I pray for your peace and for justice. I pray that this horrible act will wake up our young people and let them know that life is not promised to us and we should make the best of it. May God grant you peace and help to ease your grief.
