“ I always had fun and laughs with Venita when we worked night shift at the hospital together. She was a great cook for pitch-ins and always good for a joke or two. Many nights it was her that got us through. Fond memories won't be forgotten. Sorry for your loss. She loved you all dearly. Betty Messel

“ She loved for me to brush her hair when I was little! For the longest time I thought her name was "B"enita! I took her to the Bluebird to see the Mavericks and she disappeared for a while! As I was watching Raul Malo in awe, I noticed the people next to me looked down and and moved aside, and she appeared, dancing to Okie from Muskogee! It was funny cause everyone looked down at her! LOL I will cherish that night for the rest of my life! She had a blast! Love you Aunt Venita!
