“ Verna impacted my life in the short years we taught together at Divernon, IL. She was a powerhouse of energy and took that small school district by storm. From poets, to book authors, to completely moving the district library, no child or teacher ever walked by her without growing. From countless laughs and tears, Verna impacted every person, adult or student. She pulled me in to knowing her family in Mt. Vernon and Alsey, IL. and the dynamism of the Sheets family. Her logo for life should be , "She Cared". I am more than grateful that our paths crossed. She will rattle all those she touches in the afterlife.

“ Verna was such a wonderful unique human being. I taught with her so many years ago at TriNorth & absolutely loved her. My favorite memory was her clown costume! What a difference she made in this world! ❤️🙏❤️

“ We were blessed to have been neighbors of Buddy and Verna for many years. Verna had the biggest heart, as many have shared. Undoubtedly she will leave a huge void, but a lasting legacy as well. Buddy, Andy and Allen, our hearts are heavy for you and we are praying that the God of compassion and comfort will carry you through your suffering and loss.

With love and prayers,

“ I met Verna at Tri North. It was at the beginning of my teaching career, and I wanted so much to emulate her. She related to the kids where they were, communicated high standards and expectations and made it clear to each student that she had complete confidence in that student's capability to meet those standards. Her energy was boundless, and she gave the kids everything she had. I hope I did half as well. Thank you, Verna, for what you gave the kids, and the wonderful role model you were to me.

“ Verna was such a joy to teach with on the Tri-North faculty. She brought the whole school together with her special projects that involved each discipline teaching around a theme. Those were such happy times. My sympathy to Buddy and the family.

“ I worked with Verna at Tri North and will never forget the school Christmas party she hosted one year at her home. Sometime during the evening she read an hilarious passage, that I assumed she wrote, about her day of preparation for the party starting with something like getting up in the morning and harvesting and pounding the wheat for the bread she would make later after she finished weaving the placemats, and so forth...getting all her ideas from Martha Stewart! She was so funny and had us in stitches! It was not unusually to have her bringing joy into our lives though as all of you know. She was a unique loving friend and colleague.

“ Mrs. DeLuce was my teacher at Tri-North. I loved being in her class and always appreciated her feedback. She was the kind of teacher who always motivated you to do your very best. I remember giving her a scarf for Christmas and she acted as if it was a treasure! My sympathy to her family.

“ I remember Verna and Buddy from the time they attended Sherwood Oaks Christian Church....they were an amazing couple. Verna was so involved with our drama group years ago that we had...."Son Shine"....she was excellent in whatever she did. Later, I understand she became a very good clown. So very sorry to hear of her death. Very nice obit. written by some family member in today's paper. Buddy and family: you have been on our SOCC prayer list....of which I am one of the prayer warriors....God comfort you, Buddy.and be with you through this difficult time. Dianne Shewmaker, from SOCC

“ I'm so sorry to see Verna has passed. She was an invaluable mentor to me when I was a teacher, and then later I became a librarian as she was also. She truly brought out the best in all she touched and maintained her sense of humor in every situation. This is a great loss to our community. Sending peace to her family and friends.

“ The love and light of Jesus, her Savior, shined so brightly in Verna, you couldn't miss it! Loved her in just the short time I met her and knew her. The trip to Israel is something you never forget and I feel fortunate to have shared this experience with her and Buddy and all of our group.

“ Verna and I served together on several MCCSC committees over the years. Her energy and commitment were amazing. The last time I saw her, she was wearing a Cat in the Hat hat at a school board meeting. That was Verna: never afraid to put herself out there and speak her mind.

“ I only met Verna a couple of years ago. She joined the Courtside Ministries and would come to offer to pray with people going into or past the Justice Building. I LOVED when she prayed. She really talked to God! So sorry for the loss.

“ The one thing that is foremost in my mind is Verna's smile. She was a caring and loving friend that I had the privilege of knowing. Working Emmaus and Chrysalis walks with her was always an adventure. I know she's already finding her niche in Heaven. God bless her family as they deal with their loss. Hugs and prayers.
