“ Vernon, as a young teen, you were almost a second son to me - you and Brent were inseparable. There was a time that we never went out to eat without taking you with us. If I bought Brent a new shirt, I frequently bought you one just like it. You were such good boys (as far as I knew anyway - LOL). We took you to Florida and Disney World with us when you guys were around 20. I remember how you both were taken with the pretty Norwegian girls in the World Showcase at Epcot. You and Susan came to my condo with Brent and Kristi when I first moved in about 3 years ago. It had been a number of years since I had seen you, and I remember being so awed at how that young teen was now such a big man. Otherwise, it was like I still knew you. You offered to help me with some work that needed to be done in my condo, but unfortunately, I never connected with you to accept that help. I know Brent continued to try to look you up when he would come to Bloomington to see me, but I never saw you again. That makes me so sad.

To Susan and your sons, I pray that you find peace.

“ You will be missed dearly. The fun and laughs we had at the get togethers at your dads it will never be the same without you there. I was so thankful for you when mom was sick you sat with me at hospital and Mamaw begley and Wendell you were there nearly every day for us and I am forever grateful and thankful you were the loving and caring cousin you were. To me you was like a brother from another mother. I love you my sweet big hearted cousin. I was so proud to say my cousin has a black belt in karate and is a judo instructor I always thought that was pretty awesome. R.I.P. till we meet again. Tell mom and aunt Rosie hi for me.
