“ Carl, Betty, Elaine and the rest of your family.

I was saddened this morning to hear that Vernon's obituary was in the paper. I let Frank know, too. He and I read the great story of Vernon's 100th birthday online at the H-T. This is an impressive obituary for a man with a distinguished life.

I wish that Frank and I had stopped in at Bell Trace in February when we were in Bloomington making final arrangements for the sale of Dad's house.

If I didn't have other commitments tomorrow, I would be there Friday to tell you in person how sorry I am. Bell Trace will not be the same without you all.
