“ I'm going to really miss you Vicki, I remember every evening how you would come over to my apartment to check on me. U were a very good friend, loving and caring. I'm really gonna miss you so much. I remember all the evenings we spent and you would always have a glass of tea with me and sit on my porch swing in the evenings, I'm gonna miss all of this greatly. I'm gonna miss seeing your nice smile when I would open up my apt door, just to see the excitement on ur face knowing we was gonna have a wonderful conversation and drink our sweet tea. I remember your birthdays you would always call and make sure I was gonna be there, that always warmed my heart. I remember all the cook outs I would have and you would come over and alwatpys help me get the food prepared, I'm gonna greatly miss you so much and all our wonderful memories Vicki. Love you so much, rest easy in the arms of the lord. Love always ur friend, Michelle Thomas

“ We are sure going to miss you Vicki, So many memories of great times enjoying BBQs together in the summer . So many times of just sitting outside on the Patio just chatting away. We shared stories of our Children and growing up in different places and we always shared so many laughs and smiles. And just enjoying the beautiful weather in the Spring and Summer. Oh how you Loved Jesus and you're Children and you're little doggies and you're Grandson. All the times we shared just living our lives and sharing our talks will always be a favorite memory. Thank you Vicki for always being a friend and fir always taking the time . R.I.zH sweet Lady
