

Wanda E. Deckard

June 28, 1926 - July 5, 2025

Wanda E. Deckard, age 99, a lifelong resident of Bloomington, Indiana passed away early Saturday morning, July 5, 2025 at her residence. She was born June 28, 1926 to Marshall Frances Frye and Anna Viola Roberts Frye and grew up in the Allen's Creek area prior to the completion of Lake Monroe.

After graduating from Smithville High School, Wanda went to work in the RCA plant's secret room during World War II, prior to her 65 year marriage to Frederick Blaine Deckard.

She and Blaine were longtime members of the Northside Christian Church, and also attended Woodhaven Christian Church here in Bloomington.

Wanda leaves behind her daughter, Beverly Brown and husband, Steve of Bloomington, grandson Sean Brown, and his wife, Kelly, and great grandson, Ethan Brown all of Arizona. She was preceded in death by her husband Blaine in 2009 and four siblings, Orville Frye, Oney Frye, Benny Frye, Hazel Segó, as well as her parents.

Funeral services for Wanda will be held Wednesday, July 9th at 1:00PM in the chapel at Valhalla Memorial Gardens mausoleum.

The family encourages you to consider a donation to the American Heart Association instead of flowers. Also, they would like to extend a heartfelt thanks to the kind staff of Gentry Park as well as Southern Care Hospice for the professional and personal care they provided to their mother, Wanda.

Allen Funeral Home and Crematory 4155 South Old State Road 37 has been entrusted with arrangements and online condolences, photos and memories may be shared with family and friends at www.allencares.com
