

Wanda Louise Stansifer Smith

December 10, 1935 - January 29, 2021

Wanda Louise Stansifer Smith, age 85 of Bloomington, passed away Friday afternoon, January 29, 2021 at the Hearthstone Health Campus. She was born in Bloomington to Earl Stansifer and Olive Corbin Stansifer.

Wanda was a 1953 graduate of Bloomington High School and spent her entire working career with the locally owned, family company, Stansifer Radio which her father founded.

She was a longtime member of the Ellettsville First Assembly of God Church and was an avid basketball fan willing to travel anywhere on a moment's notice to watch, especially her grandchildren's games.

Wanda leaves behind her sons Randy and Charlene Smith of Ellettsville, David and Ruthie Smith of Ellettsville, grandchildren Nicole Johnson and husband Gabe of Bloomington, Janelle Rice and husband Don of Greenwood, and Jordan Smith and fiancé Amanda Alexander of Bloomington. Also surviving are great grand children Maya and Cruz Johnson, and Alysity, Elliana, Brandon, and Jada Rice. She was preceded in death by her husband Larry, her parents and step mother Ruth Stansifer.

Visitation for Wanda will be held Tuesday February 2, 2021 at Allen Funeral Home and Crematory 4155 South Old State Road 37 from 11:00AM to 2:00PM. Services will be private. She will be laid to rest next to her husband Larry, in the Clear Creek Cemetery.

Wanda's family would like to extend our heartfelt thanks to the staff of the Hearthstone Health Campus for the wonderful care and kindness you gave to our mom and family. Bless you all.

Online condolences, photos, and memories may be shared with family and friends at www.allencares.com

“ Wanda was quiet but she knew how to make you feel loved. I know I didn't see her in her sickness but before then when we would see each other there would be a smile and big hug. She was a big part of my youth days. I loved her so much. See you someday soon.
