“ Lee was younger than me. Treva and I were about the same age. But, one summer for 2 weeks grandma and grandpa Martin kept Lee. He was about 4 years younger than me and we played constantly that 2 weeks. What we played was cowboys and Indians. I wore nothing but cowboy and Indian outfits and had a belt with a cap gun on it. We would play near that old pond down by the road. My dad was so fearful that he had that pond filled in because he was afraid we kids would drown in it. (Thanks dad I am neurotic just like you when it comes to the kids.) Lee brought out the tom boy in me and we had so much fun running in those ditches and shooting each other with the cap gun. I know it is a silly memory, but when I think of Lee I think of that fun summer that I was all tomboy and Lee laughed and laughed....and had so much fun too. Love you guys, family of mine.
