“ Jane, Terri, Mark & Brandy,

We were sad to read the news about Wayne. Mom and I have so many great memories of our backyard neighbors! Wayne built a fantastic treehouse that we all loved along with a rope swing and tall outside light that allowed us to play outside past dark. Jane was always making delicious candy and Wayne would knock on the backdoor sharing some with us or stopping mom on her riding mower to give her a few pieces of candy. And he was a great fix-it guy in times of emergencies. Always grilling on the back patio in rain, shine, cold or heat. I'll never forget his laugh and smile!!!

I know you will cherish all the wonderful family memories over 70 years! Strength and faith will help you take one step at a time into a new future without the physical presence of your beloved husband, dad and grandfather.

*Wishing each of you Many Blessings and Peace,
Velma & Roxanne*
