“ We are so sorry to hear about Wes passing. We was a good friend to my father, Jack Gloye. My father spoke very highly of him. He was an excellent carpenter and we still have the beautiful rocking horses and headboards that he made for us about 32 years ago. I know his family will miss him much and think about him just as we miss my dad now. God Bless him for being such a kind, hard working man. We feel very fortunate to have known him.
