“ The cafe I worked at we would see Wilbur almost every day. It was great to see him. He would always get the number 8. So the number 8 was called the Wilbur. When we saw him pull in a parking space we got his breakfast ready. I would take him his meal he would always say I didnt have time to stir my coffee or that looks good enough to eat.

“ My memories of Wilbur Turner since childhood are ones of a kind and good man, a good father, and one who enjoyed a good laugh with you. Wilbur was always a good friend to our family, especially to our father after the loss of our mother. Wilbur did well with the life he was given.

“ I was raised just up the road from Wilbur. He lived on Ralston & we lived on Ford avenue. One snowy winter day Wilbur had his wheel house tractor out on the road pulling a long line of us kids on our sleds hooked to his tractor. He pulled us around the Broadview neighborhood. Must have been ten or so behind him! Precious memories !
