“ Bill was my Dad. He and my mother divorced when I was only 6 so honestly I didn't know him that well until I was in my 30's after my Mother passed away. That is when I found out what an amazing father he actually was. My Dad has helped me and gotten me through some very difficult things when I had nobody else to turn to and without any judgement of any kind. I will miss you so much and I love you!

Bill was one of my best friends starting when we were in highschool, I had been in contact with my friend until I moved to Alabama in 2021, we talked on the phone often afterwards, I remember one time , when his daughters were very young , that bill had them one weekend and we took them for a boat ride and some fishing, after a while we were in a cove fishing and bill turned looking back at me and said is it normal to have water in the boat? I looked back to the back floor and seen the whole subfloor was under water, not wanting to scare the girl's, I told them the fish were not biting and we should go home, I know later bill told me they said they both really enjoyed the boat ride, it is with great sadness to hear of my good friend's passing,.
