“Ran, you were always my protector. I wish I could have protected you from all your illnesses. Thank you for being the best big brother ever! You always took Doyle and me to the Saturday matinees at the movie theater. You made me sit through cowboys and indians, but you and Doyle also sat and watched Bambi and Cinderella with me. And you always let us get however much candy, popcorn, and pop we wanted. Several years ago you gave me a picture of the two of us, framed with a million dollar bill and a note that said I meant that much to you. I will always cherish that. Big brother, you're worth that and more to me! Thank you for always being there for me! Love always, your sis, Dori
