

William Raymond Graham

January 14, 1953 - May 27, 2024

William Raymond Graham, known as Will, passed away suddenly from natural causes on May 27, 2024 at his home in Bloomington, Indiana.

He was the son of Raymond Graham and Rosemary Kieffner Graham, born on January 14, 1953 in the backseat of a car near Loogootee, Indiana. Will always like to do things his own way, including his birth.

He was a 1971 graduate of Edgewood High School in Ellettsville, Indiana. Will was Captain of the football team, President of the Student Council, and was elected to Boy's State.

He graduated from Purdue University with a BA in Fine Arts. He lived in Lafayette for several years, then became a chef with independent fine dining restaurants in Broad Ripple and downtown Indianapolis. Will later obtained his Masters of Library Science from IU and returned to his hometown of Bloomington, where he lived the rest of his life.

Will had many interests. He was an avid reader, a gardener, a cook, a friend to so many. He was a devoted follower of Meher Baba, and traveled to India to visit his shrine.

But mostly, Will was a kind, gentle, caring, person who made the world a little bit better.

He is survived by his siblings Dr. James Graham (wife Cheryl, son David) of Sellersburg, Ind., Doug Graham (wife Anita, son Jovon) of Bloomington, and sister Dr. Nikki Graham (husband Joe Oliver, children Joe, Abigail and Amy Oliver) of Hamilton, NJ, his special friend Gabriella Tal, as well as many dear cousins.

He will be laid to rest in Center Ridge Cemetery in Sullivan, Indiana. A memorial celebration of life will be held at a later date.

Allen Funeral Home & Crematory has been entrusted with the arrangements. Online condolences, photos and memories may be shared with family and friends at www.allencares.com
