“ Although I did not know you dear loved one, I saw the obituary online and wanted to send you my condolences. This is a very difficult time for your family. Something that has always given me comfort is a scripture at Revelation 21:4. It says: "and he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no mor, neither will mourning, nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. " I sincerely hope this brings you comfort

Brittani, thank you so much for your kind words. Although I'm seeing this a year late, it's still very appreciated. God bless you.

“ I was very sorry to hear about Mr. Stewart's passing. I always enjoyed talking with him at the post office in Ellettsville when he used to get his mail there. He was a sweetheart. May your memories comfort you in this time of loss.

Uncle Bill has been greatly missed, and his wife, Rose, passed only a few years after him. They impacted our family more than we realized, and their absence is felt at every family gathering and holiday.
