“ Jean was such a sweet lady I have known for many years since I was a young girl at Sanders church. Later in years her family built a new home beside my grandparents. My deepest sympathy Glenda, Steve, Nancy & your families. ❤️

“ I have known Sis. Jean for over sixty years. My family and hers went to Handy Church when I was very young. She and my mother Marie became best friends and shared many things together over the years. Church, teaching Sunday School, cake decorating classes, and quilting. Sis. Jean was a wonderful godly woman and a good family friend. She leaves a great legacy.
