

Yvette Beaudin

March 28, 1920 - June 29, 2015

Yvette Beaudin of Bloomington, Indiana passed away June 29, 2015. She was born March 28, 1920 in France to parents Marcelle and Jules, and had an older sister Juliette. Yvette was widowed twice (Andre Gleyze and Jean Beaudin) and at very young ages. She had one child, Jacques Gleyze, and they shared an extremely close bond. Cancer came calling in 1982 and she was given six months to live. She thought otherwise and walked three miles a day on the high school track in Paoli, Indiana for decades. She was always a very hard worker, feisty, and quite a delightful character! She loved to dance, laugh, knit sweaters, cook (she was the Queen of Crepes), travel, serve others, and is the strongest woman we have ever known. She was a wonderful mother, and had a huge role in helping to raise her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Her thoughtfulness, love, generosity, and dedication to her family were second to none. Yvette's legacy lives on through her surviving family members: Jacques (Lydia) Gleyze of Bloomington, Jacqueline Susan Gleyze-Thomas (Dan) of Seymour, James Scott Gleyze (Shelly) of Ellettsville, her great-grandchildren Jeremy Gleyze, Leslie (Chris) Gastineau, Cassandra Gleyze, Cory Gleyze, Seth Thomas, Lilly Thomas, and her great-great-grandchildren Avery Gastineau and Brooklyn Gastineau.

She will be deeply and fiercely missed.

Funeral services will be held on Friday, July 3rd,
Allen Funeral Home, 4155 S. Old State Rd. 37, Bloomington, IN 47401 at 11:00 a.m. Friends may visit 9:00 - 11:00 a.m. at the funeral home prior to the service on Friday. Online condolences may be given to the family at www.allenfuneralhome.org

Her charity of choice was Relay For Life, and was a devout Catholic all her life.

“ Hello, my name is Vincent Touja, and my grand-mother was Juliette Touja.

She was living in France, in the village of Giscos at 100km of Bordeaux.

I found a letter of Yvette Beaudin in her house. When I was younger, she tells me about a friend in USA, but nothing else. My grand-mother died in 2010, and she stay all her life in the little village of Giscos. I don't know how did they meet each otther. And If Yvette Beaudin have familly in france?

if you want to answer me I give you my mail : vicatou@orange.fr

Peut-être que vous parlez français?

Cordialement et Merci, Vincent Touja

“ I want to express my condolence to Yvetta's family. I lived across the street from her on Unionville Road in Paoli. I really enjoyed her friendship. She had a great sense of humor. She was such a great friend. Every year for Christmas she would bring me over a cake she had made. she was just so sweet. When I moved to Danville, Indiana, we would exchange Christmas cards and that was the only time we stayed in touch with each other, but I sure did think the world of her. she was a great christian lady. I know you will have lots of good memories of her.
