“ Dear Family of Zoe and Bob,

Deb we loved them all. Your mother was one of the most beautiful woman I have ever known. Not just by sight but with her kindness. The Christmas tree, a full on tinsel with the color wheel, her hair, her laugh, her grace. I was determined as a young girl to ware my hair as she did. Never was it as eloquent, only Zoe could master the up do. Your Mother and Bob were some of the best friends my parents could have asked for, and they were solid in their friendship. Every time I hear the bells ringing in the Student Building on campus, I always think of your Dad. It has been rebuilt, and the bells still ring. Remember the flood down Kirkwood taking out your brothers business...that was again repeated. I did not know Zoe was from Kentucky, and now that I do, I see where her grace is traced. Just know that we knew them, we loved them. And duly miss them. And the old life that was, and is now just memories, and as was already written... it was the best of times... All our best

“ My dear Aunt Zoe, beloved sister to my mother Mabel. My very favorite Aunt always sent me Birthday and Christmas cards... she always kept in touch with me even though we lived very far apart. She will forever be in my heart ❤️ and I picture her with my sweet Mom and their other 3 siblings reunited in Heaven. Young and strong and carefree again sharing memories of growing up on the farm in Kentucky, then in Indiana. And also I envision my beautiful Aunt Zoe, reunited with her beloved husband Bob. Dancing together again in Heaven. She was the embodiment of grace, beauty, intelligence, charm and faith. I'll miss you dear Aunt Zoe miss the long phone conversations we used to have....but I will see you again I know. Prayers to my dear cousin Debby, and the entire family, for strength and peace at this time of sadness. Rejoice in knowing she's now pain and stress free.... wrapped in our Heavenly Father's arms for all eternity. With all my love , Linda Healy-Farnes
